

Estella Kilian

Whiting

Estella Kilian Whiting, 93, died January 15, 1988, of her home in Salt Lake City, Utah.
Born December 12, 1894 in Solihull, Utah to John F. and Mary L. Bingham. Kilian. She married Floyd S. Whiting April 17, 1918. As-tella attended the University of Utah and was active in Women's clubs, having been a member of the Boy View Club in Kayville, Utah. She resided from 1923 to 1928 in Kayville, Utah. She was Treasurer of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs. Her husband passed away July 17, 1984. Their son, Kenneth was a pilot in WW II, and was lost in a raid over Austria.

Survived by her daughter, Helen W. Kirby, La Jolla, Calif.; granddaughter, Margaret Louise Kirby, San Francisco; new-nephew, Ken Kilian, Salt Lake City; nieces, Marjorie, Patricia, Hazel, Peterson; and Beatrice Lons, all Provo.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m., Tuesday, January 19th, at Eastman's Evans & Early Mortu-uary, 574 East 100 South, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Family interment, at Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park.
N3 1/18

house that his father owned. He was born April 15, 1886, along with his mother and three sisters. His father was a coal miner in Scotland. As a young man, he worked in the coal mines in Wyoming, and later in Salt Lake City. He married Sarah Jane Thompson in 1915. She was a good housewife and a good farmer. He held the offices of road supervisor, justice of the peace, school trustee, city clerk, sheriff and coroner. Sarah Jane Thompson Lindsay was born at Provo Dec. 27, 1857, to William Sarah Fenn Thompson. She died at Dec. 4, 1932. She was the mother of ten children. Her mother helped her in the moonlight and help her and them. Her father sit by with his gun to protect them from prowling Indians. Sarah was a perfect homemaker and a good cook. She cooked for most of the weddings and public receptions that were held in Prydes Hall in Center Creek.

Andrew and Sarah Jane had ten children. Lizzie, Sadie, William, Jane, Thomas, Tecnie, Robert, Violet, Dora and Mary.

JAMES W. AND CHRISTINE BAUER LINDSAY

James W. Lindsay was born July 30, 1877, the eldest son of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay. He married Christine Bauer November 17, 1898 at Center Creek. She was born August 29, 1879 at Nurnberg, Germany. To them were born five children. Glenn W., married Dora Nicol. Bruce, married Florence Rose Sweeney; Stella (Mrs. Leo Murphy); Hilda (Mrs. Lynn Pap-

Born 19 April 1845 at Gatehead, Ayrshire, Scotland.

My father, William Lindsay, was born in Wanlockhead, Scotland, on 15 May, 1820. His father was Robert Lindsay and his mother Elizabeth Geddes. They were born the same day, August 22, 1799. My mother, Christina Howie, was born in Craighall, Ayrshire, Scotland, 3 July 1823. Her father was William Howie and her mother was Jane Blackwood.

William Lindsay and Christina Howie were married on 14 May 1844, and in 1848

William Lindsay to get married from Salt Lake wagon. Most three children going. We night and at home the next to the Endow a crowd before next day, so found two more same purpose Giles, Albert Daniel H. W. 100 pounds of rocker, one kettle to take John Muirs.